

Fee Schedule

A. You agree to provide a $1000 retainer. However, this retainer may be waived by Dr. Penbera and is, typically, waived, for clients with whom PenberaParis has previously worked.

B. You agree that all bills are due and payable upon receipt. Bills are considered overdue after 30 days from the date of billing. Interest on overdue bills will accrue at the legal rate. You agree to pay all costs for collection of overdue bills, and accept that such costs will become part of the principal amount outstanding upon which interest will be charged.

C. If a case has settled, you agree that it is your obligation to advise Dr. Penbera of that in writing. Failure to do so will rightfully obligate you to costs incurred, even those after a settlement date.

D. If an agreement has been reached among you and several other parties to split the costs of experts, including the costs associated with Dr. Penbera's and/or PenberaParis' work, you understand and agree that if Dr. Penbera is not paid within 30 days of billing or within 30 days of settlement of the case, whichever is earlier, you are obligated for the payment of all fees associated with this engagement.

E. The following represents the range of hourly fees.

- | | |
|--|-------|
| 1. Analysis of Materials, Preparation of Written Reports, And Preparation for Testimony | $350 |
| 2. Deposition Testimony:
Paid by Opposing Counsel; 1 hour minimum | $450 |
| 3. Trial Testimony: | $450 |
| 4. Travel and Waiting Time for Testimony:
plus direct travel expenses at the IRS for auto expenses, or airfares at the published rate. | $175 |

F. Payment instructions will be provided on the invoice. Invoices are, typically, sent from our certified legal assistant via email and/or fax to the attention of the lead attorney and/or their legal assistant.